Well, definitely one of my favourite tours. No doubt, it's a combination of the best of Patagonia and two capital cities.

Note, we can run this program in reverse, so you can start in Santiago or Buenos Aires. In Santiago, you will find a great city. There are some interesting markets. I suggest to visit Graneros del Alba. You will find good handicrafts there. If you have some free time, a wine tour would be great. Chile makes excellent wines. Let me suggest the hotel Fundador Blue Tree. Once in Patagonia, you will enjoy Torres del Paine National Park. This large area is an incredible place to enjoy trekking, and other adventure activities, or just relax and watch the wonderful landscapes. The Costaustralis Hotel is a great hotel.

Crossing the border, you will arrive to El Calafate, gate to the glaciers. Perito Moreno Glacier is unique! if you're healthy, take the minitrekking to walk over the ice of the glacier. Unforgettable experience! Taste the lamb in La Tabita Restaurant! Let me suggest the Unique Patagonia in superior category and La Estepa if you want tourist. They offer an excellent service in each category

Ushuaia is the southernmost city in the world, beautiful city located in front of Beagle Channel. Taste the Spider-Crab served in Tia Elvira Restaurant. For chocolates, go to Laguna Negra! Lennox Ushuaia and Fueguino Hotel are excellent options in the city.

Final portion is the Argentina's Capital City. Didn't you visit Buenos Aires yet? Well, our city will surprise you! Walk Recoleta Area and enjoy the architecture. It's not Europe, but you will find part of this continent in our city. Take a breath to lunch or dinner in Puerto Madero and walk the area. And of course, visit San Telmo Fair on sundays for some interesting handicrafts. And do not forget to visit a Tango Show! La Ventana is my favourite.

I'm sure you will enjoy Argentina and Chile travelling with our company!
